I referred to the fact that the general had no opposition to being made marshal of Georgia. "No," said he, "I think none. Joe Brown was friendly to me, and Brown," said the general, with an almost imperceptible smile, "was a republican too."
General Longstreet remarked that the absence of sectionalism in this country-was one of the most apparent and pleasing things to be seen. His last very scathing (?) article in the Mastville Advocate is potently conviucing of one fact, that is if he is as ignorant of theology as he has proven himself to be of Geor gia pulltics, he needs re-education sadly, and the sconer his bishop takes him in hand the better it will prove for this clerical politician. Among his inaccuracies we have only time and space to remind him that Senator Brown was elec ed four times governor of this state.

The motto of The Atlanta Constitution is "oaward." It is determined to keep abreast with the forward march of the progressive city in which it is published. It announces in its Issue of the 12th mist, that it will soon be printed from new type in quarto form, the pages to be neatly cut and securely pasted. When The Constitution gets on its new dress, cut in metropolitan style, it will be a regular metropolitan paper.

Cumming Clarion.

The Atlanta Constitution is to be enlarged and otherwise improved so as to be ready for the cotton expassion. The Sunday Gazette alludes to the editors as constituting a team. No objection to that, but the highest compliment that can be paid them, is that they give back to their patrons, free y and voluntarily, all of their profits except a modicum for the stockholders. They make thousands, the insport y of which is distributed to their subscribers as news dividends. These gestlemen are noted for efforts to burd by Atlanta, Georgia and the south, and praiseworthy for the conspicuous absence in their paper of bearian of destructive tendencies.

Who is not proud of Atlanta' Is there any one in Georgia living in such "a pent up Unica' that be is jealous or envious of the growing importance and embryo greatness of the gate city? If so, he should be sent by the country of the Lilliputs and held down with a horse hair across the bridge of his nose until he becomes willing to bid god speed to the railroad hub of the south, which as it rolls enlarges itself, the city and its committee and manufactures, indirectly benefitting the entire state. All hall to Allanta' the city of pash and enterprise of growing wealth and goiden upportunities. Who would not be proud of Atlanta, her noble sons and noble@daughters?

General Longstreet's Mission.

Boston Heraid.

And so General Longstreet is to combine the duties of United States masshal for Georgia with those of a political readjuster. He is expected to "organize a new party, to be composed of republicans and independent democrats." The administration, despite the failure in the senate and the rupture in New York, appears still to put great faita in office-peddling. "Harmony" was to be retored, the solid south broken up, Conk ing neutralized, and the Garfield-Blaine dynasty set up on a rock for eight years, all by means of the concessive power of public plunder was added the attractive force of patronage. The cohesive power has developed a double-dynamite energy as an explosive. The air is full of fragments and howls. And, for every recruit that is attracted by an office, a dozen disappointed applicants or disgusted independents are repelled. If this policy shall prevail much longer, it will become clear that the bourbons are not confined to one party.

—Dr. W. H. Russell, the English journalist, likens the Yosemue to the Alps at their best, and thinks that it combines the attractions of half a dozen famous European places. He supposes that the virtues of the Chinese are more to be feared than their vices. He says that his son, who is governor of the island of Formosa, thinks that in time there will be a rupture of the commercial relations of China and those of other nations trading in the Pacific. The Chinese are making rapid advances in shipbuilding and in the arts of war and of commerce. Arizona and New Mexico, the doctor thinks, resemble India, even the sageorush being the same.

"Yes; Turner and Shuttl's hav; exclisaged shots on more than one occasis. I. Turner would come to town and make things lively, until 'huttles would have to take hold of him. Why, I tell you, when that man came to Greenville the people would go into their houses and close the doors. Farmers would leave the town in order to evoid him and he would assume entire control. He was looked upon as a perfect desperado, a perfect Jim Curry. Texas never turned out a bigger builty than fobe Turner. There are now several indictments against him in Meriwhere county and in every county adjacent thereto Tobe Turner owes the law a debt that is long past due."

"How's public opinion?"
"If the best citizens of the county had their way, Turner would be hung. He has no triends except his relatives. He has been a great annoyance to the people of that section for years, and they rejoice at the relief. I think every prominent citizen will indorse this statement. Turner is a bad man and the killing of Shuttles, who was really considered one of the most peaceable men in Greenville, was a cold-blooded murder."
Shuttles leaves a wife and several small children. Turner is also a married man.

the thousand we notice that whatever friend Keely sets his head upon in the way of a class of goods to be sold as a bargain, he always makes it lively in that special line. Anything like the immense stock of shirts which he is now offering we have never seen. His store, or at least a great part of it is literally crowded with piles of shirts, but they will soon be cleared out at the rate he is selling them. Other goods, too, he is giving away just now at prices et tirely without a parallel. If the captain makes a few more pilgrimages to New York, he will almost have moved the stocks of that metropolis to Atlanta. His freight bills last week alone aucounted to bundreds of dollars, and still he assures us he has to order goods almost every day! Ten years ago if anybody had stated that such an immense trade as he now enjoys could have been built up in our city that man's sanity would have been doubted. Seel: g, however is believing. If you doubt the fact stated, just call at his store and you will quickly be convinced. Give him a call.

Who of all people are most concerned about their soles! Why those who wear shoddy shoes. I should not be surprised to know that such people carry a paper of tacks in one pocket and a hammer in the other, for, in order to keep sole and body together, they must keep pegging along.

I deal in no such trash;
But my Shoes are all made up first-class. To meet a man with his toes all out, I should feel like wheeling "right about,"

That is, if he had bought the things of me.

Macon, Ga., May 1881.

Dear Sir: For several years I have been terribly afflicted with an ulcerated sore leg. For months at a time have been confined to my bed. Having tried several doctors and used every remedy I could hear of, I had despaired of everybeing cured. After about seven weeks' use of Sanodine I find myself almost cured. I have thrown aside crutches and stick and feel like a new man. I cheerfully recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Respectfully.

THE LIBRARY SALE.

ATLANTA, May 30, 1881.—To the President an oard of Directors of the Y. M. L. A.—Geutl sen: Having been appointed, on last Tuesdight, a committee to confer with Mr. J. I rown, under the resolution which you the pon your minutes. We recommend that test be grauted, and we shall not quote at rom his communication as, in its entirety, I have it before you. entering into an elaborate defense of the

the association framed by ex-President Brown forbidding the employes of the association to take part in any library electrone that ex-President Brown tried very hard to induce several gentiemen, first one and then another, to become my opponents in the rake. This was long before the appearance of my card cont ining my platform. Every member who has been approached by anyone canvassing signast me, or who came to vote, will bear witness to my assertion that Mr. Clark was in the race a did not everything that could be done was done by his friends to have him elected. My platform was not made the issue of the context. Since the election I have been teld by a number of inembers who read the authorized statement that Mr. Clark was not acan didate, that had they known of, or even suspected the persistent fight that was to be made against me, they would have gone to the polis opposition, they did not rote at all.

Ex-President Brown states that he was elected to year previous by an simost unantmous vote. The lacus are a very small vote was cast—113 in all—he receiving 109.

I find again the following: "I (ex-President Brown) was not aware until I read the above statement that the bonds fell due during the present administration." I did not state that they would. I stated that the deficiency would be about $18,000.

Further on he states, "the bonded debt is no 18,000.

ter on he states, "the bonded debt is of embarrassment to the present admir etc., etc. I differ with ex-fresid I think it is. We have got to pay $900 interest on the bonded debt. At President Brown went into office we ime of about $700 per an um as interest loaned out. In addition to this loss our revenue $1,00 per annum. Granting that the interest on our bonds is the same as the rent we formerly paid, our revenues are cut short eleven hundred dollars. Your committee, as will be seen by the foregoing report, taking ex-President Brown's figures and correcting them, make it appear that our probable deficiency by the first of October next will be $1,900 26 after leaving out the items of insurance and water tax, and after making no provision for purchase of books and binding, printing, etc., which will necessarily arise. They also count $800 as the probable amount which will be collected from outstanding debts. My experience for the past ten years lead me to believe that $600 will be about all we can count on. Then taking the items I mentioned it connection with your committee's report, you will see that my estimate of a probable deficiency of $3,000 by October faxt, is not far from correct committee was appointed at our last board meeting on the 8th inst, which is now at work preparing an exact statement for the members of the association of our liabilities and resources, which statement will be published before the election so that each member langer to fitness?

will necessarily prove a benefit, for if they vote the role of the country of the and pile up indebtedness up in to-debtedness for future administrations to be hampered with? Had we looked forward in the past two years, we would not to-day have to is nearly debt nanging over us.

Our bonded indebtedness has only eight years and nine months to rim. If we expect to pay it off at maturity from the rents of the stores—and I see no other source—it will require $1,825 ber annua, including the insurance on the building. Can we rent our stores for that amount? Up to this tione we have not been also on account of the location to rent them. They are not fit for the wholesale trade, because that trade requires more than one story, and the location is not desirable to restallers unless we rent them for a small amount or to objectionable lines of business. So much for our bonded debt which, according to ex-President Brown, should give us not not possed to the location give us. owed the treasurer..... Brown made it..... Ar. have $15,000 to Turest, and from which to receive a handsome income.

We do not mean that the library should have no permanent home—no building, the property of the association—but we think it wise to take the $20,000 and seek new quarters. If necessary, we can rent for a while and then select some corner lot where the high will always be sufficient. Beyond a doubt, on $20,000 a more suitable building can be erected and paid for, and that, too,in a locality deemed acceratible by laddes, we confidently believe that if we sell to Mr.

course as an example for those who come hereafter.

But never, in our opinion, has Mr. Brown placed the association under so many obligations to him as when he made the offer to pay $5,000 more for our building than it costrus. Our present building contains a large amount of space which can never be utilized for library purposes;
its location has caused dissatisfaction on the part of many members, darkness threatens us on the erection of adjoining buildings; and although our stores were completed on the 1st of October, they have yielded to us no revenue. We'll may we return thanks to him who comes forward to give us $5,000 more than we have expended, to enable us to use the benefit of our experience, and to locate the library in a more suitable building, in some less objectionable neighborhood.

and to locate the library in a more suitable building, in some loss objectionable neighbor-will be an of doubt the authority of the directors to sell without a rote of the members, but we will not discuss the question, as we do not have their exercising the authority. We will not discuss with Mr. Brown the wishes of the members upon the subject of a sale. The vote which they cast will bring a concussion more certain than the most lucid argument. With the following resolutions, our work is ended. We have endeavored to avoid all things which might bring about personal feeling between members of the association. Whether we sell or retain the building the library cannot afford to lose a friend, much less to make an enemy. We have written with feelings of the numest kindness for those who differ with us, and certainly no private wish should control our action, but with an earnest devotion to the trust imposed upon us, with a deep seated love for the institution which we represent, let us seek its interest. If the members of the association deem it best that no sale take place, your committee bespeak unflagging attention to the fibrary's cause, but if it is the will of the members that a sale do take place, with our best endeavors, we must serve helibrary until it is again in a home of its own, free from dept, and self-supporting. We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

resolution:
Resolved, That the communication of Mr.
Brown be spread upon our mioutes.
Resolved, That the sale of the library building to Mr. J. L. Brown for $5,000 more than the original cost be submitted to the members of the association for them to say whether or not a sale shall take place. Respectfully submitted.

ness so much for our bonded debt which, according to ex President Brown, should give us to unsealines ook all the after our floating debt. Your finance committee who were instrueted to borrow a sufficient amount to pay off our most pressing debts, stated at our last meeting on the Sth Instant, that they had not been able to do so None of the banks were willing to loan us mouey on account of the debt now hanging over us. The treasurer made a statement that he had received a communication from one of our creditors, threatening that if a debt of $38 was not paid soon it would be collected by a constable some few days since the water supply was cut off because we had not paid our water tax. This bill, however, has since been paid, with a few others—your finance committee having borrowed five hundred dollars upon a note signed by them as individuas and making them personally responsible for that amount. Should not this alarm us.

Since our revenues have been decreased by loss of interest on our fund and by members committing their dues for life, will ex-President Brown come to our assistance by giving us something more substantial than advice toward raising the needed money? Advice is cheap and this size that the contract of the same than a substantial than advice toward raising the needed money? CORD'S VIVAL RESIDENTIAL

Tr. Ricord's VITAL Restorative has been lorsed by the Academy of Medicine, Paris, an infallible specific, contains no phosorus, cantharides or other poison; is pure Vegetable; is a sugar-coated pill, can be had of veasor. It is the view Richelieu, Paris, France, or Jor. S. BROWN SIG-ESMOND, General Agent, 40 for the control of the control does he drag any personal reclings—and he seems to have them against me—into the library affairs?

During my official connection for the past ten years with the association I have labored zealous jy, so far as I was able, for the interest of the library. The only thing I censure myself for is voting to build at the time we did, on the amount of cash then in hand and upon the present site. This error I have freely acknowledged. In conclusion I promise the association (I believe I can safely do so, for the other members of the board) that whatever may be the wish of the members and the result of the election I will conduct to give my attention to the euccess of the association; and at the expiration of my official connection with the institution, conscious of having done my whole duty from no selfah matives, I will retire without asking for an unanimous vote of thanks or any inscription upon marble fastened to the walls of an institution that I still and ever will love. Very respectfully, NOTICE is hereby given that R. L De Lisser, of New York, is no longer authorised to act as agent for Ricord's VITAL Restorative.

The counterfeiter of Ricord's VITAL Restorative tried to keep the agency and prepare himself with a spurious imitation and change the name from Ricord's VITAL Restors tive to Dr. Ricord's Restorative to Dr. Ricord's Restorative, to have a similarity in name.

The testimonials of Drs. R. Blanchard, C. Chevalier, M. Perigord, Liebg and Sir Thompson are copied from my Circulars, Physicis n. Depot for Dr. Ricord's VITAL Restorative, rue Richelieu, 10 bis.
